Sample: a fictional house

House · East 2 · Mao · Period 9 · double stars at front

Sample · 20-11-2026 · SAMPLE

Your summary

Your building faces East (83°) and was finished in Period 9.

Your 3 best zones

1. front-centre · Main door
2. front-right · Living room
3. back-right · Master bedroom

What to do first

1. Measure the facing again 2–3 times: you are only 0.5° from a mountain edge, and the chart can change.
2. Best spot for the main door: the front-centre zone.
3. Best spot for the master bedroom: the back-right zone.
4. The front-left zone is weak: add metal there (see Remedies).

front-right	1/8	Strong: suits the door, cashier, customer area.
back-right	8/1	Strong: suits desks, bedrooms, long stays.
front-left	5/4	Weak: keep it quiet and solid (storage, toilet, walkway).

Placement plan

Function	Zone	Mountain / water
Main door front zone with the highest combined score	front-centre	9 / 9
Master bedroom side or back with the strongest mountain star, avoiding annual 5/2	back-right	8 / 1
Second bedroom side or back with the strongest mountain star, avoiding annual 5/2	left	7 / 2
Living room front zone with the strongest water star	front-right	1 / 8
Kitchen yellow side/back zone, no star 5 or bad annual star	right	6 / 3
Bathroom lowest score, not at the front	back-centre	4 / 5
Storage lowest score, preferably at the back	front-left	5 / 4

Keep the centre open. Remaining zones (back-left) for walkway or spare.
Plumbing, fire safety, structure and access always come first. A room spanning two zones uses the better one for its main use.

Can’t move a room? Traditional remedies

Most rooms can’t be moved. For each weak zone, here is what tradition suggests instead. These are traditional practices, not scientifically proven methods.

5/4	The front-left zone (5/4): weak star 5, linked in tradition to misfortune and setbacks. Traditional remedy: metal. Add brass or other metal objects (a metal bowl, a brass ornament or a six-rod metal wind chime). Keep red, orange and yellow decor, candles and pottery out of this zone.
6/3	The right zone (6/3): weak star 3, linked in tradition to arguments and stress. Traditional remedy: fire. Add warm lighting and red or purple accents (a cushion, a rug, a lamp). Avoid adding plants or a water feature here.
3/6	The back-left zone (3/6): weak star 3, linked in tradition to arguments and stress. Traditional remedy: fire. Add warm lighting and red or purple accents (a cushion, a rug, a lamp). Avoid adding plants or a water feature here.
4/5	The back-centre zone (4/5): weak star 5, linked in tradition to misfortune and setbacks. Traditional remedy: metal. Add brass or other metal objects (a metal bowl, a brass ornament or a six-rod metal wind chime). Keep red, orange and yellow decor, candles and pottery out of this zone.

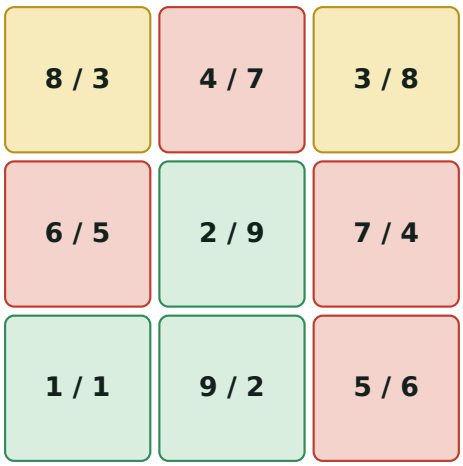
If this is a bedroom or desk you can’t move: keep it calm and tidy, spend your active time in your best zones, and add the remedy. Safety and comfort always come first.

Near a mountain edge

Your facing is only 0.5° from a mountain edge. Phone compasses can be off by a few degrees, so a slightly different reading can give another chart. The main chart uses substitute stars. The neighbouring chart (East 1 · Jia, 81.5°) is shown below. Zones that change: front-left, front-centre, front-right, left, centre, right, back-left, back-centre, back-right. Different chart pattern: No special pattern. Re-measure 2–3 times at different spots until the number is stable.

Neighbouring chart: East 1 · Jia



Special formations

Whole-chart patterns that classical feng shui texts look for. Every chart is checked; formations do not change the zone colours, which come from the star values.

None found. This chart has no Fu Yin or Fan Yin (/), Combination of Ten, Pearl String or Parent String.

Period star of every zone (the base chart): front-left 3, front-centre 7, front-right 8, left 5, centre 9, right 4, back-left 1, back-centre 2, back-right 6.

Watch in 2026

• Annual star 5 in the right zone: avoid heavy renovation, digging and long stays there. Tradition: brass or metal objects, or a six-rod metal wind chime; keep red decor and candles away.
• Tai Sui (year of the Horse) in the right zone: avoid demolition and heavy noise on this side, and do not sit facing this direction for long.
• Annual star 2 in the back-left zone: the illness star in tradition. Do not put the bed or main desk there. Tradition: a brass gourd or other metal objects.

Applies 4 February 2026 – 3 February 2027. Traditional advice.

Monthly stars 2026

The monthly 5 Yellow and 2 Black move every solar month. Avoid starting renovation or digging in the zone holding the monthly 5, and take extra care where it meets the annual 5 or 2.

Star key

Period 9: star 9 is strongest, 1 and 2 are rising, 8 is fading but still decent. 3, 4, 6, 7 are weak; 5 is worst. 3 = quarrels, 7 = loss/theft (in tradition). Only 3 of 9 zones are green by design, so some reds are normal.

Personal good directions

Calculated separately from the building chart. Use it to choose which way the desk faces and where the bed head points.

Building: gua 7, West group (from the sitting direction West).

Sample: Kua number 1, East group

Different group from the building. No need to move: point the desk and bed head to your personal good directions.
